

SENATOR HANNA GROWS WEAKER

His Temperature Also Continues to Rise.

DOCTORS REMAIN HOPEFUL CONSULTATION WAS HELD DURING THE DAY.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Senator Hanna passed today without any radical change in his condition. His extreme weakness was more marked than heretofore, and his temperature was a little higher. Those attending him, however, insist there is nothing significant in these conditions, and that there are no developments on which to change their expressed belief that the outlook is hopeful for the senator's recovery.

There was a consultation of Dr. Rixey and two out of town physicians during the day, but the most important development that transpired as to the consultation was that it had been decided to omit the evening call of the attending physician so as to give the patient more rest.

The consultation was held about 10 o'clock this afternoon. Those who participated, besides Dr. Rixey, the surgeon general of the navy, who is the regular attending physician, were Dr. Oser, the expert diagnostician of Johns Hopkins university of Baltimore, and Dr. Brewer of New York, who has frequently attended Senator Hanna in New York, and who is familiar with his general condition.

Physicians' Bulletin.

"Senator Hanna is doing well. His morning temperature was a little higher but the heart's action is good, and there are no complications.

"DR. RIXEY AND OSER."

It was announced that Dr. Edward Perkins Carter, Cleveland, Senator Hanna's family physician, will reach here tomorrow, at the request of the senator.

Dr. Brewer came to Washington with Dr. Oser, but did not sign the bulletin. The two outside physicians left the city immediately after the consultation. In view of the latest bulletin of the consultation, it was decided that the regular evening visit of the attending physicians should be canceled, in order to give the patient more rest and avoid the excitement incident to another examination. The trained nurses, however, kept a chart of the fluctuations of temperature, making the usual record at stated intervals.

Patient Very Restless.

The senator was very restless last night and gained little sleep. This, together with the general course of the fever, it is stated, accounts for his weaker condition and increased nervousness today. The physicians explain that it is to be expected that the fever will increase until the crisis is passed, but they do not name any definite date when that critical point will be reached. His temperature has shown a steady net gain for several days, with the usual fall of one or two degrees over night.

Yesterday, Dr. Rixey made his call about 9 o'clock this morning following the decision in Senator Hanna's condition that his temperature, 101.6-10; pulse, 90.

This was a rise of 6-10 of a degree in twenty-four hours, and of 1-10 since Friday morning, when the official announcement was made of the presence of the typhoid. The senator is taking no nourishment except milk. He is too weak to talk, and his mind is over words to those who are attending him, Mrs. Hanna and Miss Phelps, his niece, being the only ones permitted to see him because the physicians and trained nurses.

Mrs. Hanna Exhausted.

Mrs. Hanna has been a steady attendant at his bedside, and shows the effects of the strain she is undergoing. She took a long rest yesterday afternoon, which apparently benefited her. Miss Phelps remained at the apartments so as to be present in case her services were needed. Daniel B. Hanna of Cleveland, a brother of the senator, called on the long distance telephone from there, as has been his custom since the inception of this illness. His presence was needed, and he would come at once if there was anything in the senator's condition to suggest his coming. He was not, however, advised him that there was no immediate danger, and acting on that advice he has made no plans so far to come to Washington.

Senator Hanna frequently asks for his secretary, Elmer Dover, but pretexts have been used to shift his attention from business cares, and a rumor had expected to go to Chicago to attend an important meeting of a sub-committee of the Republican committee, but remained here on account of the senator's condition. Mr. Hanna was not told the reason for Mr. Dover remaining here, and believes that it was due to illness in his secretary's family. He had made frequent inquiries upon this point, and Mr. Dover, to avoid having the senator's attention focused on business matters, has found it necessary to avoid seeing the senator except once since the illness reached the serious stage. On one occasion the senator showed he was devoting considerable thought to business care, and a question about one matter concerning which he wanted to give instructions led him to make numerous inquiries. It is this mental effort which, these attending him are earnestly striving to avoid.

ITCH-RINGWORM.

E. T. Lucas, Wingo, Ky., writes, April 25th, 1932. For 12 to 15 years I had been afflicted with a malady known as the 'itch.' The itching was most unbearable; I had tried for years to find relief, having tried all remedies I could hear of, besides a number of doctors. I wish to state that one single application of Ballard's Snow Liniment cured me completely and permanently. Since then I have used the liniment on two separate occasions for ring worm, and it cured completely. 25c, 50c and $1.00 a bottle. Z. C. M. I. drug department.

Are You Restless at Night?

And harassed by a bad cough? Use Ballard's Forehead Syrup. It will cure you sound sleep and effect a prompt and radical cure. 25c, 50c and $1.00. Z. C. M. I. drug department.

TRAGEDY IN A TENNESSEE COAL CAMP.

Knoxville, Tenn., Feb. 7.—In a fight at the Coal Creek (Tenn.) depot today four persons were killed and three injured by armed guards employed by two guards employed by the Coal Creek Coal company. A deputy sheriff who went to arrest a guard was killed.

The dead.

Monroe Black, miner, aged 24. W. W. Taylor, miner, 31. Jacob Sharp, section hand, a bystander, 35.

Deputy Sheriff Robert S. Harmon, killed by Calburton, a guard at the Knoxville mine.

The Wounded.

A. R. Watts, a merchant at Coal Creek, an innocent bystander, shot through the chest by a guard.

Mote Cox, miner, shot through left arm.

Jeff Hoskins, engineer on the Southern railroad, slightly wounded.

The cause was the culmination of trouble between union and non-union labor. Three of the dead men were killed by guards employed by the Coal Creek Coal company and the fourth victim, a deputy sheriff, was killed by a guard he had gone to arrest.

Field Engineer of Moffat Road in Utah County.

Vernal, Feb. 3.—Field Engineer Rittenhouse, who is in charge of the surveying party that is out in the interest of the Moffat line, came to town last night from the headquarters camp at the west end of the valley and probably eastward toward Brush Creek.

Mr. Rittenhouse is under instructions to run a preliminary by way of Vernal to Island park, a few miles back in the mountains. What he has previously stated in the Herald, and it is along these lines that the party is working.

The survey has reached a point far west of the town of Vernal, but it has not yet been determined where it will leave the river in the direction of Vernal, but this will be decided in a few days.

Mr. Rittenhouse states that the progress of the survey has been slow on account of the brush and timber, which has impeded the way, but that a very satisfactory grade down the Duchesne river has been secured.

Concerning the grade over the Strawberry divide and down Daniel's canyon, Mr. Rittenhouse was non-committal, but it has been learned from inside sources that the grade exceeds 2,000 feet.

The company, which is in charge of the survey, is the Moffat road company, which means that another line will be run down the west fork of the Duchesne. This latter route is the most direct, and will not doubt receive consideration.

The party, in charge of Engineer Rittenhouse, will move shortly on to Island Park, where the camp will be established for a time. From there the next move will be to Vernal.

All the reports that are coming in from the Bear River surveying party have been very encouraging, and have as yet been encountered over there, and the impression is more than over held that the line will follow down the river instead of going south to the mountains.

Charles Crouse, the Brown's Park ranchman, who was in Vernal recently, received word Monday of the death of his wife during his absence, and left at once for the ranch. The deceased woman was formerly Miss Law of Cache valley, where she has many relatives. For many years Mr. and Mrs. Crouse lived in Brown's Park and Rock Springs, Wyo., where they were prominently and favorably known.

Mrs. Martha Holmes, wife of Charles Holmes, Sr., died Monday night of an affection of the heart. The deceased woman leaves quite a large family, the most of whom are in the city. She was married. The family has resided in the county for many years.

The Home Dramatic troupe is the title of an organization recently formed in the city. It is the intention to make it a permanent affair.

St. R. Bennion, president of the Ashley Co-op, returned last night from a trip to the northwest coast of the Pacific coast. While out Mr. Bennion attended the livestock convention recently held at Portland, Ore. He comes back more than ever impressed with the advantages of Utah and the future possibilities of the state.

Ad Ross, who has been industrial teacher at Whitecreek, has been transferred to Ouray.

A sum of $1,000 in cash distributed among the Indians at the Ouray agency Monday. The payments will be made in checks, which is the first time this has been done, the rule heretofore being to pay in cash. The payment in checks was made by the Indian agent, and the money was distributed among the Indians at the Ouray agency Monday.

The company which was to have placed the new school building at the opera house last night failed to put in an appearance, through some unknown cause.

Albion Brinton of Springfield is in town for a few days' visit.

William Dean has purchased the home of Robert Walker and has moved to the new home. Mr. Walker has moved to Vernal, Utah.

J. H. Davis is home from Scofield, where he has been working for the last three months in the mines at that place.

WAR VETERANS' REUNION.

Meet Again at Camp Fire and Reconstruct Hair-Brained Escapes.

Huntington, Feb. 6.—The Black Hawk war veterans of Emery and Carbon counties who took part in the Indian troubles of 1885-87 had a splendid reunion in Huntington on the 3d and 4th insts. There was quite a lot of visitors from other towns and a large number of the veterans were present.

The reunion was held in the large meeting house, with a dance for the old veterans on the night of the 3d in the Huntington Seminary hall. Everybody enjoyed themselves and the reunion was a most successful one.

On the night of the 4th there was a programme and picnic in the meeting house. A dance in the Seminary hall in honor of J. H. Killpack and wife, who had just returned from a California mission.

A few days ago an election for district officers was held. The Agricultural association was held. A complete change was made in the board and the following officers were elected: William Howard, J. E. Johnson, Mart Jensen, William Marshall, Antoin Nien, W. A. Nicker, W. A. Guyton, Jr., C. M. Miller, R. Gordon, S. S. Grange, J. W. Brasher and R. L. Smith. It is expected that this new board will have something to do, as the board of directors has just reversed a judgment the canal company got against Don C. Seely in the district court. It is thought, though, that the new board of directors will try and settle this trouble in a spirit of fairness with all parties concerned.

The Huntington Dramatic company, which has been organized for the last eighteen years and has given hundreds of dollars—all it ever earned except the expenses of some charitable purpose, paying war debts and helping other war organizations, has been refused the house to put on any more plays, and another opposition dramatic company has been organized and is trying to put on a play, but what success it will have is hard to tell, as reports state that most of the people are dissatisfied with it, and it looks as though the end was not yet.

Stock taking time has just passed and is over for this year. The Huntington Mercantile company, George M. Miller, manager, has declared a dividend of 33 1/3 per cent. The Huntington Co-op has declared a dividend of 8 per cent, and the stockholders of the latter are asking some hard questions for the management in answer, or at least questions that are not answered.

The Salt Lake papers talk about the weather being mean, but what comes has not come yet. With the exception of about two inches of snow, that only lasted a little while, the weather has been like fall or spring. We have not had a day that was not comfortable for men to work out of doors.

PROVO NEWS NOTES.

Provo, Feb. 7.—A private letter just received from Senator Smoot states that he will work for an irrigation project that will bring additional water into Utah, Salt Lake and the Cache valley, and that he is hopeful of such a plan being adopted.

Wesley M. Prestwich, aged 24, and Julia M. Thomas, aged 24, both of Lehi, have taken a marriage license.

The following orders have been made in the Fourth district court: Estate of Samuel Hadfield, deceased; decree showing legal notice to creditors has been given. Robert Boardman vs. Thomas Boardman, husband and wife, exhibit ordered returned to plaintiff.

STOLE PRIZE MONEY.

Thief Breaks Window of H. G. Bates' Store.

Park City, Feb. 7.—The store of H. G. Bates was broken into last night and $30 taken from a small box which had been kept in the window for a long time. The money was to have been given away as a prize. The person who did the work was evidently posted, as he waited until the clerks had all left the store and none of the policemen was at the city hall, which is across the street from the building. He then cut the glass and got away.

The officers have taken the matter in hand, but so far have not found anything which would give even an idea as to who the culprit is.

Mrs. C. J. Leyland, who lives at the Lake Flat, met with a very painful accident by falling on the ice. In falling, Mrs. Leyland struck her right forearm upon something in the snow and cut that member badly from the wrist to the elbow. Dr. Ward was called and found it necessary to sew the wound, requiring ten stitches in the operation.

COUNCIL FIGHTS MAYOR.

Row Among Republicans in Mt. Pleasant.

Mt. Pleasant, Feb. 7.—The new city council met in regular session last evening and, as indicated by their star chamber proceedings of a few nights ago, turned down a part of the mayor's appointments. Their work is going to be to trouble in the Republican ranks, but they don't seem to be smart enough to realize the fact. As was predicted at election, Councilman Marshall seems to be the leader, and he and he has taken against the mayor's appointment for city attorney comes with very poor grace.

A resolution restricting the saloons was introduced by Mr. Marshall, that brought out a warm discussion, but the rest of the members were finally whipped into line.

Snow began falling here at daylight this morning, and at this writing (noon) four inches of snow has fallen. This, with two inches that fell Friday evening, has made a total of six inches, and given much encouragement to the farmers.
